

The Wild Way Home Competition!

When Charlie's longed-for brother is born with a serious heart condition, Charlie's world is turned upside down. Upset and afraid, Charlie flees the hospital and makes for the ancient forest on the edge of town. There Charlie finds a boy floating face-down in the stream, dressed in deerskins, injured, but alive. But when Charlie sets off back to the hospital to fetch help, it seems the forest has changed. It's become a place as strange and wild as the boy dressed in deerskins. Now it's something vast and strange. Something ancient. Something WILD.

And Charlie is a long, long way from home. Charlie has unwittingly fled into the Stone Age, with no way to help the boy or return to the present day. Or is there...?

Swindon Stories is delighted to invite school children to take part in The Wild Way Home activities and competition over the summer, details of which will be announced shortly via our website - <https://literacytrust.org.uk/communities/swindon/families/wild-way-home-activity-pack/> and our Facebook page – <https://www.facebook.com/pages/category/Charity-Organization/Swindon-Stories-105000791158512/>

Prizes will include a signed bookplate by the author, amongst other delights!

Please keep an eye out for further announcements and for proof-copy books of The Wild Way Home, hidden around Swindon!
