

Swindon Borough Council

Keyworker Childcare - Parental Declaration Form

The advice from the government is to stay at home; this includes keeping children at home. However, if you are a keyworker and there is absolutely no other way of caring for your child, Swindon Borough Council will support you to find suitable provision in order to continue delivering your critical service.

The government's keyworker criteria is available here;

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/coronavirus-covid-19-maintaining-educational-provision/guidance-for-schools-colleges-and-local-authorities-on-maintaining-educational-provision>

Please tick the qualifying criteria to confirm your employment in one of the areas below, meeting keyworker status;

- () Health and Social Care
- () Education and Childcare
- () Key Public Services
- () Local and National Government
- () Food and other necessary goods
- () Public safety and National Security
- () Transport
- () Utilities, Communication and Financial Services.
