

What's beneath the ocean?

English

Recount

Poetry

Retelling a story

Creating their own story based on one they know.

Exploring new vocabulary

Non-fiction books

Phonics -Diagraphs and alternative pronunciations.

Spellings, related to phonics and

Language for thinking.

Comprehension.

Colourful Semantics.

The Arts

Drumming.

Under the sea art.

Physical Education.

Weekly swimming lessons.

Maths

Time - Ordering events of the day, days of the week, months of the year and telling the time.

Length - Comparing and ordering length. Measure lengths using metres and centimetres

Position and Direction - Positional language and giving directions.

Weights - Comparing weights and measuring weight in standard units.

Religious Education

Christianity

The Holy Trinity

Moses and the burning bush

Islam

The Story of the first revelation of the Qu'ran to the Prophet Muhammed

Hinduism

Exploring the Hindu God- Brahma (Creator)

Emotion Potion

Understanding my family.

Keeping safe and exploring physical contact.

Explore friendships and conflicts.

What's a secret?

Who can I trust?

What does appreciation mean?

Celebrate relationships.

Naming and labelling emotions.

Identifying coping strategies.

Science

The Water Cycle.

Roots and Shoots

Time to grow.

Fruit, shoots, roots or leaf?

Roots, shoots and so much more.

Water for life

All children will attend their mainstream class for 50% of their timetable (afternoons). During this time children will be engaged in learning covering all curriculum areas. In addition, children in Forest class will have therapy interventions as per their EHCPs.

The children next steps from their outcomes within their EHCPs will be a primary focus throughout their learning. In addition to this, children will continue to work on their own individual next steps set out in the framework.

What's beneath the ocean?

All children will attend their mainstream class for 50% of their timetable (afternoons). During this time children will be engaged in learning covering all curriculum areas. In addition, children in Forest class will have therapy interventions as per their EHCPs. The children next steps from their outcomes within their EHCPs will be a primary focus throughout their learning. In addition to this, children will continue to work on their own individual next steps set out in the framework.